Individual Membership

LeadingAge Missouri is a community of mission-driven aging services providers and other mission-driven organizations serving older adults.

Members cover the nation and aging services continuum, including skilled nursing, assisted living, affordable housing, life plan communities, adult day and PACE programs, hospice, and home-based services.

LeadingAge Missouri individual membership delivers professional tools and resources—and offers access to a network like no other. Together we are building an equitable and inclusive aging services sector, in which opportunities exist for all to thrive.

We offer everything you would expect from a trade association, plus much more.

Advocacy & Public Relations to amplify the collective voice of aging services.

Through our relationships with lawmakers and the press, LeadingAge Missouri elevates and illuminates the issues that matter most to aging services providers and older adults. Nationally and in Missouri, we fight to remove barriers to care and improve funding for the sector.

Hands-on Help & Resources

to support you day-to-day.

LeadingAge and LeadingAge Missouri deliver a steady stream of news, information, and tools for members. LeadingAge staff are available to provide resources any member may need.

Policy & Regulatory Guidance to deepen your understanding on critical issues.

LeadingAge Missouri policy, regulatory, and legal experts help members navigate the increasingly complex aging services landscape. You'll receive guidance on federal laws, technical assistance on essential topics, and advice on state regulations and standards.

Thought Leadership

include your voice in shaping aging services in Missouri.

LeadingAge Missouri active committees provide direction, knowledge and support for aging services. Your voice is important to LeadingAge Missouri and together we are stronger.

We are LeadingAge: the trusted voice for aging.

We are making America better for older adults in all the places they call home.

LeadingAge Missouri is a resource center for all in aging services. You will find benefit as an educator, senior receiving aging services, or a student entering the field of aging services.

LeadingAge Missouri is more than an association, it's a collaborative partner in the field of aging services for our member community. The partnership has enhanced and expanded our mission through timely communication, cutting-edge education, and thoughtful policy advocacy benefiting our team, our organization, and our residents. And the fellowship present in everything LeadingAge delivers serves to bolster the value of our engagement and makes participation enjoyable.
